

Day One	Inch House Irish Studies Centre Arrival and orientation
11.00	Arrival at City of Derry Airport and transfer to Derry-Londonderry , the UK's inaugural City of Culture, 2013, a 15 minute drive on our private coach.
12.00	Lunch will be arranged by agreement in Derry.
14.00	Walking tour of Derry for orientation, including a visit to the Mayor in the Mayor's Parlour, the Wall Murals , Monuments , the Tower Museum and other historic sites : led by Tony Johnston, Centre Director and John Guthrie, Community Worker.

	The Peace Bridge, Derry, 2012
18.00	Transfer to Inch House , a 20 minute drive.
19.00 -20.30	Evening meal at Inch House, catering provided by the Centre.
	Accommodation: Inch House Irish Studies Centre Inch Island Burnfoot Co. Donegal Republic of Ireland +353 7493 60587 www.inchhouse.com

	Recommended Reading Graham, B. & Nash, C. (2006) A shared future: territoriality, pluralism and public policy in Northern Ireland, Political Geography, 25 (3), 253–278 [Link] McDowell, S. (2008) Selling conflict heritage through tourism in peacetime Northern Ireland: transforming conflict or exacerbating difference? International Journal of Heritage Studies, 14(5), 405 – 421 [Link]

Day Two	Politics, Conflict and Development The Peace Process in Northern Ireland
7.30 – 8.30	Self-service breakfast buffet; including cooked meats, eggs, cereals, bread, yoghurts, teas and coffees. Locally sourced where possible.
9.00 – 10.00	Political Structures in Northern Ireland: Dr Gavin Duffy , Professor of Politics Lecture in Inch House Boardroom
10.30 – 11.30	The Geography of Ireland, with Tony Johnston Jnr
12.00	Conflict Resolution, Principles and Practice , Lecture from a senior Peace Process politician
12.45 – 13.30	Lunch, self-catering lunch, Inch House. We will provide a range of homemade soups, sandwiches, fruit, teas and coffees.
13.30	Departure for Derry, a 20 minute drive
14.00	Policing in Post-Conflict Communities , The Police Service of Northern Ireland , Local Community Officer in PSNI Station, Derry
15.30	Human Rights and Social Change , Paul O'Connor, The Pat Finnuccane Centre . The Pat Finnuccane Centre is a non-party political, anti-sectarian human rights group advocating a non-violent resolution of the conflict on the island of Ireland. They work with a variety of NGOs nationally and internationally and discuss the experiences of the Troubles.
16.30	Visit to Apprentice Boy's Memorials and Protestant Community Murals, with John Guthrie, Community Worker
18.00	Transfer to Inch House , a 20 minute drive, followed by evening meal at Inch House, catering provided by the Centre.
	Accommodation: Inch House Irish Studies Centre Inch Island Burnfoot Co. Donegal Republic of Ireland +353 7493 60587 www.inchhouse.com

	Recommended Reading Hill, A. & White, A. Painting Peace? (2012) Murals and the Northern Ireland Peace Process, Irish Political Studies, 27 (1), 77-88. [Link] Till, K. (2003) Places of Memory, in J. Agnew, K. Mitchell and G. Toal (eds.) A Companion To Political Geography, London: Blackwell, 289-301 [Link]

Day Three	Environment & society National parks, land use and protected areas
7.30 – 8.30	Self-service breakfast buffet; including cooked meats, eggs, cereals, bread, yoghurts, teas and coffees. Locally sourced where possible.
8.30	Departure for Glenveagh National Park , West Donegal, a one hour drive.
9.30 - 13.00	Tour of Glenveagh National Park with academic from the Department of Geography, National University of Ireland, Galway, focussed on nature-society-rurality .
13.00	Lunch in Glenveagh National Park .
13.45	Departure for Inch House, a one hour drive.
15.00	Fieldwalk with conservationists and local academics at the Inch Widfowl Reserve , a drained marshland, with a man-made freshwater lake. The lake supports variety of migratory birds, including swans, mute, whooper and bewick.
16.00	Coastal Ecology Field Walk , with local academics.
17.00	Local marine wildlife coastal conservation groups
18.00	Evening meal at Inch House, catering provided by the Centre.
	Accommodation: Inch House Irish Studies Centre Inch Island Burnfoot Co. Donegal Republic of Ireland +353 7493 60587 www.inchhouse.com
	Recommended Reading O'Connor, D. & Dunne, W. (2009) Conceptualizing Multifunctionality in the Irish Policy Context—Issues for Policy Formulation, Implementation and Evaluation, Journal of Environmental Policy & Planning, 11 (4), 333-346. [Link] Healy, N., Rau, H. and McDonagh, J. (2012) Collaborative Tourism Planning in Ireland: Tokenistic Consultation and the Politics of Participation, Journal of Environmental Policy & Planning, 14 (4), 450-471. [Link] a

Day Four	Energy Security Wind power, fracking and Shell to Sea
7.30 – 8.30	Self-service breakfast buffet; including cooked meats, eggs, cereals, bread, yoghurts, teas and coffees. Locally sourced where possible.
8.30	Departure for Buncrana, a 20 minute drive
9.00 – 11.00	Meeting with local wind farm developers , community lobbyists and politicians in field. Tour of wind-farm, Q&A session with lobbyists.
11.00	Departure for Inch House, a 20 minute drive
11.30	Meeting with local fracking developers, community lobbyists and politicians. Q&A session with lobbyists.
13.00 14.00	Lunch, self-catering lunch, Inch House. We will provide a range of homemade soups, sandwiches, fruit, teas and coffees.
14.00	Meeting with Shell to Sea lobbyists, campaigners and politicians at Inch House. Q&A session with lobbyists.

	16.00
18.00 – 21.00	Irish mini banquet including a harpist, piper, Irish dancer, singers and other traditional performers.
Accommodation: Inch House Irish Studies Centre Inch Island Burnfoot Co. Donegal Republic of Ireland +353 7493 60587 www.inchhouse.com

Day Five	Student Fieldwork Facilitation of sampling, interviews, focus groups etc, as requested from Inch House.
7.30 – 8.30	Self-service breakfast buffet; including cooked meats, eggs, cereals, bread, yoghurts, teas and coffees. Locally sourced where possible.
8.30	Departure for fieldwork. Inch House will facilitate student research groups with contacts, vehicles and access as requested.
18.00	Self-service evening meal at Inch House
Day Six	Student Fieldwork Facilitation of sampling, interviews, focus groups etc, as requested from Inch House.
7.30 – 8.30	Self-service breakfast buffet; including cooked meats, eggs, cereals, bread, yoghurts, teas and coffees. Locally sourced where possible.
8.30	Departure for fieldwork. Inch House will facilitate student research groups with contacts, vehicles and access as requested.
18.00	Self-service evening meal at Inch House
Day Seven	Student Presentations, Evaluation and Departure Use of teaching facilities to present findings and evaluate programme.
7.30 – 8.30	Self-service breakfast buffet; including cooked meats, eggs, cereals, bread, yoghurts, teas and coffees. Locally sourced where possible.
PM	Departure